Dear General Smith:

I want to thank you once again for your hospitality during our visit to Stuttgart. I consider the venture a great success, largely due to your thoughtful care for both our official needs and our personal comforts. The briefings were most enlightening and the conversations stimulating.

I feel I have gained a much better grasp of your requirements for national intelligence support. We will be working from this end toward their fulfillment. Please pass my appreciation to all who contributed to our assistance, particularly to Mrs. Smith who did so much to make us welcome.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
